

The CALIFORNIA STATE HORSEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

June 2010

Dear Paraders,

I am still thinking about what a great time we all had at the State Championship Parade last month in Los Banos. Once again, thank you to chair Kassi Gutierrez for her planning and leadership skills.

Get well wishes to Beverly Baxter, who rides in the class for working western ladies. We certainly missed you at the state parade this year. If you have any news about a parader or upcoming parade information, please let me know and I'll put the details in our next newsletter.

If there is an interest in a for sale or wanted classification in our monthly publication let me know. This could help you as well as assist in the costs of our printing and mailing expenses if a small fee was donated for each brief ad.

Enjoy this first month of Summer. Let's all show our patriotism and ride in one of the many Fourth of July parades next month. Good luck to the Merced County Sheriff Posse as they travel to Nevada to participate in the Reno Rodeo Parade. Also, a special two day event you might plan on attending is the 100th year of the California Rodeo Salinas. You may ride in one or both days of the All-Horse parades that are also part of the Grand Entries at the famous event on their main track in front of the grandstands.

Finally, do not forget to obtain a letter of intent from a city of your choice for the next State Championship Parade. The parade can be held anytime after January 31, 2010. The letter should be presented or sent to me in time for the next scheduled Quarterly meeting to be held Saturday, July 17, 2010 in Santa Nella at the Shelter Hotel complex.

Have a Happy Father's Day with your family.

Sincerely,

Candy

Candy Graham
