Click on the link to get details. It will be a very busy day at Hidden Valley – if you're riding there & not participating in the event, please bear with us; it's for a good cause (improvements to Hidden Valley), and in memory of an awesome man who was an asset to the entire horse community. For another event you might want to know about, Thrifty Horse is celebrating their grand opening at their new location, on 6th street in Norco. If you get a chance, be sure to stop in! I know that many of you have supported TIER (True Innocents Equine Rescue) over the years. It's time for them to collect donations for their annual TACK SALE on May 17th. Go to their website for details. I just got an e-mail about 8 Arabs and Arab crosses that were abandoned at a ranch in Murrieta. They are available for adoption – the person who is caring for them can't afford to keep feeding them for long. If you're interested, I'll forward you the message. I hope that some of you who haven't been coming to the Region 11 meetings will make time to attend one soon – there are lots of great programs that you might not even know about! We also have some volunteer opportunities open. We need a Secretary, someone to do a newsletter, and a few other chair people. Most of the jobs open aren't horribly time consuming – until someone is doing three of them to make up for a shortage of help.... Our Region website has links to all of the member clubs' websites (at least all the ones we know about), classifieds, and an event list that includes shows, trail rides, and anything else coming up in Region 11. Check it out! This is a great time to get involved in local activities. STOLEN TRAILER ALERT!

From Tiffany Perelman hmaewest@aol.com

Please take the time to read this very quickly.....I could really use everyone's help to get the word out. Sometime Sunday night (3/2/08) my four horse trailer was stolen off the Lucidi Farms property in Poway. I would really appreciate it if everyone could spread the word in the horse community to be on the lookout for this horse trailer. Maybe someone somewhere will see this trailer or the contents that were stored in it.

The trailer was a four horse slant load Circle J horse trailer. It was unusual since it was a bumper pull and it is very rare for a four horse to be a bumper pull. It was an aluminum all silver trailer. It has the drop down windows on the left side and looked a little like a stock trailer on the right side as well as having a tack room on the right side as well. It did not have plates on it at the time, although someone may have put plates by now.

The tack room was filled with all my horse show equipment and setup. Please be on the lookout for items such as these for sale. There was a navy and tan pop up tent, wooden decking tiles, saddle racks, bridle racks, tables, chairs, buckets, etc.

Please please be on the lookout for this trailer and please pass it on to anyone and everyone in the horse community. Thank you so much
